Ha! Ha! My Worm is almost complete!
 Soon, I shall rule all the networks in Beckman!

STOP, Evil-doer!

(Heroic music is playing in background)

Oh, no! It's... the Lovable, Indestructible Grad Student of Chaos!

Yes! 'Tis I...

(Heroic music still playing)

Foe of the mighty Computer virus,

Destroyer of the ever annoying spam email,

Blocker of the frustrating Microsoft Internet Explorer Pop-ups!

Now, feel the awesome power of the awesome Delete Key!

NO! Not the delete key! It's my one weakness...

W-What's happening? why are badly drawn smoke and sparks coming from my laptop?

Ctrl-Alt-Del!
Ctrl-Alt-Del!

Why, oh, why did I use a Windows machine when I don't have my fingers to hit Ctrl-Alt-Del!
Oh, no, the Blue Screen of Death...

MY LAPTOP!!!

KA-BOOM

AAAAHHH!

THUD!

Once again, evil has been vanquished! Now, I must go and finish that journal article for Commander HJ!

The next day in Commander HJ's secret office...

I have returned, Commander HJ!

Good work, Loveable, Indestructable Grad Student of Chaos!

Not only did you write this great article, but you saved Beckman and stopped someone from using a Windows machine!

For your next mission, we need your PhD thesis. Can you have that done by tomorrow?

Of course, Commander HJ! Most things are not impossible for the Loveable, Indestructable Grad Student of Chaos!
